

1 Recognizing Nouns

person	idea	thing	place
Jane Addams	had a dream	to open a community center	in the United States.

Underline the nouns in each sentence.

1. Jane Addams opened Hull House in Chicago in the late 1800's.
2. This place was called a settlement house.
3. A settlement house was a type of community center that provided important services to the poor.
4. Hull House helped the victims of poverty and sickness.
5. A school, a clinic, and a gym were established.
6. Jane Addams felt that the poor should have a chance to study art and literature.
7. Adults and children could study music, drama, sports, and English.
8. Immigrants studied English so they could get jobs and become citizens.
9. Hull House also provided childcare, which was a big help to working mothers.
10. Hull House became a model for other settlement houses.
11. People came to Chicago from other countries to see the house.
12. Well-wishers gave money and equipment.
13. Jane Addams tried to stop the practice of having young children work under dangerous conditions.
14. Addams lectured on child labor and public health.

(continued)