

Prepositions, Conjunctions, and Interjections

Name: _____

Part A: Prepositional Phrases

Put parentheses around the prepositional phrases, underline the prepositions, and circle the objects.

1. The bike in the driveway belongs to her.
2. The last runs of the game were made by Sam and him.
3. A wallet with a green cover was found under the chair.
4. After the game, Todd and I went to the restaurant for a hamburger.
5. Down the street ran the dog with the stubby tail.

Part B: Preposition or Adverb?: Write Adverb or Preposition to tell what each underlined word is.

6. Don't look down; we're too high.
7. Dominick slipped on a roller skate.
8. Up the wall crawled the spider.
9. The order finally came in, and we rejoiced.
10. Smoke poured out the window.

Part C: Conjunctions

In each sentence, underline the conjunction(s). ~~Label its type and~~ tell what is being connected.

11. My new neighbor and I visited the museum.
12. Neither Jim nor Jack know who won the big game.
13. Do you want fruit or cheese for dessert?
14. The sky was not only overcast but also hazy for the track meet.
15. The iced tea was cold but weak.
16. Whether you drive to school or walk, you must be there by 8:00 a.m.

17. I need to make a stop at Wal-Mart, for I need more school supplies.
18. Either Sally or Sarah will bring the cake for the party.
19. I will go with you to Skates 280, yet I would prefer to go Brunswick Lanes.
20. Both the coaches and the team celebrated after the game.

Part D: Preposition or Conjunction?

Determine how the word "for" is being used in the following sentences. In the blank, write "P" for preposition or "C" for conjunction.

1. _____ I went to the store, for I needed school supplies.
2. _____ They have packed all day, for they are leaving to go on a vacation.
3. _____ They are leaving for vacation first thing in the morning.
4. _____ I went to the Rave theater, for I heard it was the best place to see a movie.
5. _____ I go to the movies for the extra buttery popcorn.

Part E: Interjections: Underline the interjection in each sentence.

1. "Oh!" said Sylvia as she suddenly fell forward.
2. Ouch! The hammer hit my finger.
3. Hey, wait for me.
4. Oh no! What did I do with my homework?
5. Well that might just work.

- List the coordinating conjunctions.
- List the correlative conjunctions.
- What is the "to" preposition rule?
- What is the "for" rule?