

C-N-B-C

?	Student will participate in a Gifted Webquest in order to discover personal strengths and weaknesses and to learn more about himself.
?	Given the 9 th and 10 th grade level literacy standards, Tanya will read, analyze, and respond verbally – and in writing – to all forms of fiction and non-fiction text to an advanced level, or 93%, based on established criteria or rubrics.
?	Student will engage in activities which will provide enrichment to the current curriculum.
?	Given third grade level math standards, Sally will demonstrate computation skills and application of concepts to an advanced level or 85% or better accuracy.
?	Given the expectations outlined in the syllabus for College Prep English, Eddie will read, analyze and respond to all forms of literature to a proficient or higher level based on established rubrics.
?	Given the skills in creative problem solving, Celia will apply strategies to a variety of conflicts to an advanced level.
?	Student will be drawing, illustrating, writing and creating a graphic novel.
?	Given the 11 th grade literacy in technology standards, Joseph will communicate on a topic of his choosing to an advanced level through the development and maintenance of a website.